Liz Claytor
OWNER

A former Cal swimmer, Liz turned passion into a career with her year-round indoor swim school. Liz has been coaching and teaching swimming periodically for the last fifteen years. Specializing in small group lessons for children ages 6 months and up, Splash teaches water safety and strives to generate a lifelong love of the water. Says Liz, "As with learning a language, students benefit most from consistent practice." In a structured, loving environment, Liz and her staff make learning to swim fun!
